

The members of the CCI-London and Area Chapter listed below are individuals, professionals, and trades who assist in all areas of expertise and goods and services within in our condominium communities. As well, many of them continue to provide in the ongoing development of our community by sharing their knowledge and skill to the chapter in educational offerings throughout the year.

We are also appreciative for their financial support to our events, publications and the annual golf tournament which allows us to grow our offerings in education to the community at large.

There has been tremendous growth in the condominium community throughout the province. If you and your company provide services and /or would like to be introduced to the condominium community to expand your business, we would welcome you as a member so that the over 850 condominium corporations in the area can benefit.

For more information on an Individual, Professional or Business Partner membership with the Chapter, please:

email the Administrator: ccisw@cci-sw.on.ca or visit the website at the link: www.cci-sw.on.ca/membership/types-of-membership

This year the London and Area Chapter is hosting the National Leaders' Forum on November 7-10, 2018. Mark your calendars now so you can participate. Experts in all fields of condominium will be coming to the City of London and we look forward to welcoming everyone to our beautiful city. Sponsoring opportunities will be available and we look forward to your support for this national event.
